Now offering PayPal as a criminal background check payment option

Now it is easier than ever to get a criminal background check on an employee, job applicant or caregiver. Instant Criminal Checks now gives its clients the ability to pay for its services through PayPal, the popular and secure payment service on the Internet.

In recent years, online customers have come to find that credit card fraud is a very real threat, and not something that they want to deal with. Recognizing this trend and stressing the importance of safety, Instant Criminal Checks decided to partner with PayPal so their customers could get fast criminal background check results while utilizing PayPal as a secure payment option.

There are many reasons why PayPal is a safer and easier way to pay for your employment screening criminal background checks online, to include:

- You do not have to enter your credit card information on our website.
- Using your PayPal account, you can either pay via credit card or with your PayPal balance.
- It saves you time because you do not have to type in all of your credit card information. Ordering can literally be done with the click of a button, and you can rest easy knowing your important financial information is safe and secure.

At Instant Criminal Checks, we know how important safety is to our clients. This is why we have taken the steps necessary to ensure that our customers have a secure way of processing payments and obtaining the information they need in order to associate with the best people in life. The following are some benefits that our customers will realize now that we offer PayPal as a checkout option.

- PayPal offers a fraud protection policy to all of its users. It helps to protect them in the event of an unauthorized purchase, ensuring that they do not lose money in the event of fraud.
- It is not necessary to enter billing and shipping information every time a customer places an order with us.
- Our customers don't have to continue to create multiple accounts and passwords when they are ordering online. It keeps their life simple as well as protects them from potential hacking and fraud.
- They are able to keep track of all of their orders and shipments in one quick place, as PayPal will keep track of it for them.
- Our clients' e-mail addresses are kept confidential. This helps to de-clutter their Inbox and they will not receive as much spam.
